VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 251. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 22, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, pid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. Of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down" nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of nee a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

CIRCULAR TO EMPLOYEES.

Mr. Clarence H. Mackey, President of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company, has issued the following statement:

New York, October 14, 1907.

"The Postal Telegraph Cable Co., appreciative of the loyal spirit displayed by the employees who remained faithful and by those who came to its aid when so many old employees abandoned their duties, believes that this loyal spirit may be strengthened by association into a powerful agency for maintaining good relations between the company and its employees and the prevention of such movements as culminated in the occurrences of last August, and it is has therefore, in conjunction with its employees decided to form an association of those employees who have faith in the disposition of the company to deal equitably with them who are opposed to strikes, commotion or coercives measures and who recognize the plain truth that their own prosperity is bound up in the prosperity of the compsny. Such an association will be called The Telegraph Employees Association, and its object will be to secure to the company a loyal working force and to its members employment undisturbed by factions seeking to coerce or embarrass or harass the company or its employees, and its further object will be to render financial aid to its employees when sick or disabled and also in case of death. The directions in which such an association may extend its activities for the benefit of its members may easily be seen. The company contemplates that this association may be made the means of remedying local complaints by affording a ready means by which such complaints may be properly considered and also that it may be turned to the purpose of self help and the advancement of its members, especially educationally and materially, all of which objects will have the hearty support of the company."

A constitution for the proposed organization has been prepared. No dues are to be assessed, and the company is to pay benefits to members during sickness or temporary or permanent disability, or upon death while in the employ of the company.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotton rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

All afternoon Sunday neighbors heard a baby, now prattling, now crying, in the home of Mrs. Philomine Trinazone, in Union Hill, N. J. Toward evening neighbors entered the open door, for the child was crying pitifully,

The baby heard the footsteps and broke into a gurgling laugh as they entered the dining room. There sat the baby on the floor beside the body of its mother. Its toys were scattered about. The mother was dead, her neck having been hacked with a knife. She had probably lain dead for several hours, and during all the time the baby had laughed and cried by her side.

How the woman came by her death the police could not tell. She had been struck from behind a vicious blow that had almost severed her head from her body. There had been no stuggle, for everything about the room was in order and the woman had lain as she fell.

Mrs. Trinazone conducted a boarding house for laborers in the neighborhood. She was twenty-four years old and good looking, after the style of southern Italy. Where her husband is none of her boarders could tell. Five of the boarders returned to the house as the police were taking an inventory. They were all placed under arrest as witnesses.

They said that during the noonday meal Animano Scrizano, the sixth boarder, had found fault with the meal, and that when the others had left the table he and the housewife were still engaged in a bitter quarrel. He could not be found Sunday night and the police are searching for him.

MR. BRYAN IN NEW YORK.

Mr. William Jennings Bryan arrived in New York yesterday forenoon from Washington, and before he quit work for the day he had delivered three speeches, one before school pupils, another before striking telegraphers, and a third before a typical Cooper Union crowd.

Mr. Bryan's speech at that place lasted two hours and ten minutes. Mr. Bryan started out with the general principle that the average man was the man that ran the government of this country. Then he mentioned a few classes of men that he put in this large class and included some of the newspaper men among the average-man class, and gave a walloping to the rest.

Mr. Bryan in his speech before the telegraphers said that at present the strike was the only weapon the laboring man had, "but" he added, to great applause, "it's a disgrace to civilization that the laboring man should be compelled to starve his wife and children while he fights for justice from his employers."

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 22, 1907.

CONFISCATION of trust made goods when they enter into interstate commerce under a section of the Sherman anti-trust law, is the new feature of an attack upon illegal combinations inaugurated yesterday by the Department of Justice. A large consignment of cigarettes manufactured by the tobacco trust, and offered for shipment at Norfolk, was seized at the instance of the attorney general by the collector of customs at Norfolk, as stated in yesterday's Gazette. The trust, to claim its property, must go into court and prove that it is not operating in restraint of trade or violating the anti-trust law. This move upon the part of the Department of Justice is probably the most important and far-reaching action that has yet been taken against the trusts. The immediate purpose of the Attorney General is to test the law, but in the event of ruling by the courts in favor of the government the trusts are left absolutely at the mercy of the government, and all their manufactures or other property, the moment it enters into interstate commerce, may be seized and confiscated. As much as has been written and said about the Sherman anti-trust law, it has never before been realized that the statute confers any such power upon the government. It remained for Attorney General Bonsparte and his assistants to discover what an enormous power had been given the government. In the Department of Justice there is not the slightest doubt that the section of the law invoked will be upheld by the courts. The courts have decided that all combinations in restraint of trade are illegal, and that all conspiracies entered into for the purpose of affecting trade are also illegal. They have also decided that the control of interstate commerce rests absolutely with the federal government, and, therefore, that under such control the government may determine what class of goods shall be admitted to interstate commerce and what class excluded. So, in the opinion of the attorney general and his assistants, the government may seize under the confiscation clause of the Sherman law, all property entering into interstate commerce in violation of the law. If the courts take this same view of the proposition the effect must be immediately of the most far-reaching consequence. Seizure of goods belonging to a combination which is merely suspected of violating the law will be possible, and the burden of proof will be thrown upon the owners of the goods. Heretofore the government has been required to prove, first the existence of a trust, and then some violation of law. Under the new method, made possible by the heretofore overlooked section of the Sherman law, the government need only suspect and the trust must prove its innocence. Unless the Department of Justice is mistaken, the enforcement of this newly invoked provision of law will compel the dissolution of all the trusts in the United State, not as the result of court orders, but as the result of a notification from the government that they cannot continue to do business. The law applies to every combination subject to prosecution for restraint or the creation of monopoly. The coal trust operating in Pennsylvania can be prevented from sending its coal out of the State.

THE annual report of Commissioner of Pensions Warner, just issued, shows that there has been a decrease of 18,600 members from the pension rolls at the end of the fiscal year 1907. According to Mr. Warner this is the largest decrease ever registered by the bureau. At the same time, however, the amount of pensions was greater by $4,613,131. It seems that the amount of money paid to pensioners is never to be lessened even though the pensioners die.

From Washington.

Washington, Oct. 22

Is the Federal government about to enter upon a general policy of seizing the products of "bad trusts?" High officials of the Department of Justice regard the invoking of and hitherto unused section of the anti-trust law in the legal warfare against the Tobacco Trust, of the deepest significance. They intimate that it may foreshadow similar action against the Standard Oil, fertilizer, powder, and anthacite coal trusts, suits for the dissolution of which are now pending. They point that if the law permits the seizure and condemnation of the one trusts good in interstate and foreign commerce, there is obviously nothing to prevent the seizure of the products of other trusts.

"The action taken at Norfolk yesterday, in the seizure of tobacco consigned to the British-American Tobacco Company of London, is unquestionably drastic," explained a local officer today. "As we see it however, the law provides the weapon, and we would be derelict in our duty if we failed to enforce it. If the condemnation section of the law is objectionable it should be repealed. It is for congress to determine." Corporation lawyers, on the other hand, characterize the government's action as "high handed." They say the section of the law just invoked for the first time, is only aimed to give the federal authorities final power to stop an illegal corporation doing business, after it has been so declared by the courts, in case of a refusal to obey the court's order. These lawyers declare that the law makers never intended to give the federal authorities the off-hand right to stamp a corporation as illegal and furnish them the weapon of drastic enforcement, without due process of law. It is probable that the case will get into the Supreme Court on this constitutional question. It is understood from a high source that the Norfolk seizures was made for the particular purpose of notifying "bad trusts," that the government was losing patience over legal delays, and that if this policy were persisted in, wholesale sale seizures by the government would follow. "We are sincerely desirious of knowing just what the anti-trust and Interstate Commerce law mean," said anotner law officer of the government today. "The subterfuges, evasions, and legal quibbles of the trusts are becoming very annoying. It is likely that when some of these gigantic combinations see what we can, and may do, they may find it to their own selfish interests to expedite a ruling from the highest tribunal on all controverted questions."

Secretary Cortelyou left for New York this afternoon to look into the financial situation personally. Before leaving he made the following statement: "The Secretary of the Treasury is keeping in close touch with business conditions throughout the country. In the matter of public deposits he will at all times consult the needs of legitimate business interests and will not hesitate to deal promptly and adequately with any situation that may arise." A rumor was circulated here this afternoon that Secretary Cortelyou intended releiving the financial situation in New York City, by depositing $40,000,000 of government funds in two of the largest banks.

The members of the Interstate Commerce Commission will disperse this week to various parts of the country to begin this work of hearing the hundreds of complaints filed during the summer. In addition, two special examiners will start out on the same mission, and more will be added as soon as the work can be systematized. There are 2,700 complaints awaiting hearing.

A Father's Vengeance.

Douai, France, Oct. 22.—Gendarmes tore the suspected murderer of a 14-year-old girl from a mob here today, but were not alert enough to save him from her father, Pierre Latz, the suspect, was seen lurking near where the body of the little girl, Susanna, Hronez, was found early today. The child had been strangled. Latz was arrested without difficulty and was on the way to police-headquarters when a throng of several hundred lynchers beat the officers off and had actually adjusted a rope about Latz's neck before the gendarmes could summon reinforcements. The man was rescued after a desperate fight and hauled to the city prison. Here the father, summoned to identify the prisoner, took the police by surprise, wrenched a gendarmes' sword from its scabbard and drove the blade through Latz's breast.

The frequency of such crimes have aroused the people to a dangerous pitch.

Policeman Killed by One-armed Man.

New York, Oct. 22.—Policemen Eugene Sheehan was shot in the eye and instantly killed early today by a one-armed man, said to be a resident of Brooklyn. The slayer, who was arrested and taken to the Oak street police station, declares he was drunk and denies knowing that he shot Sheehan. It is asserted that he was at liberty at the time under $1,000 bonds for beating another man with brass knuckles.

Sheehan was on duty at Chatam Square and Park Row. Witnesses of the shooting say they saw the policeman walk a few steps with the man who killed him, give him a slight push and order him "to move along," on which the man drew a revolver and shot him. Other policemen rushed to the scene. The murderer fired two shots at them and, when knocked to his knees by Policeman Kohe, fired almost in the latter's face, missing him by a hair's breadth.

he Balloonists.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—The balloonists did not stick together following their departure from St. Louis. The Germans ascending to a considerable height, traveled a trifle west of north, following the direction of the Mississippi Valley. The English and French voyagers, taking a middle altitude, appear to have been swept across central Illinois and Indiana. The Americans staying close to the ground went almost straight east.

Messages from towns from which the balloonists are reported to have been seen indicate that all are now moving in a generally eastern direction.

Fire and Boiler Explosion.

Brooklyn, N. Y. Oct. 22.—The lives of fifty firemen were in danger when a boiler exploded and two brick walls fell on a quarter of a million dollar fire this morning in the factory of Schawab Brothers & Co., manufacturers of wood work at Washington and Park Avenues. An entire block of flimsy frame dwellings went up in smoke and forty families were driven into the streets when a row of wooden tenements across the streets caught fire. The fire fighters battled with the flames for five hours before they were subdued.

The Release of the Wallings.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 22.—Wm. English Walling told friends here today that he will make no demand for indemnity from Russia for his own, his wife's and his sister-in-law's arrest Sunday on suspicion of affiliations with Finnish revolutionaries. Walling, his wife and sister-in-law, Miss Rose Strunsky, were released last night, with profuse apologies from the Russian police, who said the arrests were due to the indiscretion of an over-enthusiastic secret service agent.

Street Railroad Tied Up.

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The Yonkers Street Railway system is tied up as a result of a strike of its motormen and conductors who ask 25 cents an hour in lieu of 20 they are now receiving. They also demand that the present superintendent, a New Yorker, be replaced by another. The strike caused much inconvenience to commuters who do business in New York.

Court Judge Seabury in New York yesterday denied a motion made by counsel for the plaintiff in the suit for divorce brought by Mae C. Wood "Platt" against United States Senator Thomas C. Platt for a jury trial. Justice Seabury holds that the only issue raised by the plaintiff is whether she was married to Platt, and that there is no authority for submitting such an issue to a jury.

Attorney General Davidson, of Texas, yesterday addressed a letter to United States Senator Bailey as a sequel to Bailey's speech of last Saturday night at the banquet to Gov. Campbell. Among the statements made in the letter are two, in substance as follows: "Suit will be started against the Standard Oil Company," and "inasmuch as you know so much about the Standard Oil Company, I shall call on you as a witness."

William English Walling, Mrs. Walling, and her sister, Miss Rose Strunsky, who were arrested in St. Petersburg Sunday, presumably on the charge of aiding the terrorists, were released from prison yesterday. Mrs. Walling and Miss Strunsky had a great reception from the female political prisoners in the prisons to which they were taken. They were kissed and embraced and dinner was given them at the expense of the other prisoners.

Stacey's mother-in-law saw her daughter's peril and pushed her out of danger before the bomb exploded Stacey followed the women and struck both of them with his fists, after which he was arrested. No one was injured by the explosion of the bomb, but the Valley House, in which the bomb was thrown suffered some damage. Stacey tried to put the bomb in the bosom of his wife's dress, but his mother-in-law knocked it from his hand and hustled her daughter from the room.

THE NINTH DISTRICT.

Governor Swanson was yesterday officially informed of the death of Congressman Campbell Slemp. The clerk of Wise county furnished the information. Governor Swanson said that as yet he had not taken up the matter of ordering an election to fill the vacancy, but that he would give the matter due consideration. He purposes to give all parties a chance to "fix their fences."

It is said that Judge William F. Rhea, of Bristol, is to make the race for the democratic nomination, and that there is some division among the republicans, the better element demanding either A. P. Gillespie or J. C. Nool.

A dispatch from Bristol says: The announcement of David F. Bailey, of Bristol, as candidate for the republican nomination for Congress in the Ninth Virginia district, without deference to the wish of Bascomb Slemp, complicates the situation. Mr. Bailey, who has for many years been an ardent party worker, makes the charge that there has for some time been a private understanding between Bascomb Slemp and L. P. Summers regarding the nomination of Congressmen. In connection with the announcement, Mr. Bailey, who is an uncle of L. P. Summers, says:

"I do not believe that the people of this district desire to maintain a party with no higher object than to keep the Slemps and Summerses in office. I have made up my mind to fight the combination, and shall ask the boys in the trenches to stand by me."

W. S. Rose, postmaster at Big Stone Gap, and a close friend of the Slemps, said in Bristol last night.

"Bascomb Slemp has made no formal announcement up to this time, and has taken no steps to secure the nomination. However, in the event Gov. Swanson orders a special election, I am quite confident he will become a candidate. I happen to be in a position to know that the demand for him to announce himself as a candidate is general in the district. He has received numerous letters and telegrams from leading republicans throughout the district urging him to announce his candidacy. He cannot speak at this time, owing to the recent death of his father and the critical illness of his mother, who has been barely conscious at intervals since the death of the Congressman, and who has still not been apprised of his death. His friends are confident that at the proper time the Republican State chairman will announce his candidacy.

During the second day's meet of the Middlesex Hunt Club, of South Lincoln, Mass., held yesterday at Clarkes Gap, Julian I. After a series of experiments at the United States Geological Survey's fuel-testing plant, at the Jamestown Exposition, to determine the relative fuel value of certain fuel products, it has been found that it takes one and one-half gallons of denatured alcohol to produce as much power as a gallon of gasolene, although alcohol costs about twice as much as the gasolene.

The House of Bishops of the Episcopal General Convention yesterday forwarded to Governor Swanson a set of resolutions, handsomely engrossed, expressing appreciation of his courtesy in giving them the Hall of the House of Delegates for a meeting place. The paper bears the signature of each member of the House of Bishops, including the negro bishop of Africa, who dined with Bishop Potter the last day but one of the convention. The Governor will have the paper framed and put in the State library as a State document.

Governor Swanson has announced that he will, before writing his message to the general assembly, visit all the State institutions—hospitals and schools—in order to acquaint himself familiarly with all the workings of the institutions. The governor says that he is anxious to have the State's unfortunates carefully attended, and it is to see the inside workings of the institutions that he will make the personal inspection. The governor has also determined to require of the educational institutions of the State, those receiving public aid, to make semi-annual reports to him.

William and Mary Patterson and their son Charles were arraigned in the Police Court in Richmond yesterday upon a technical charge of disorderly conduct and giving Ollie May Roberts, a 12-year-old girl, enough wine to make her drunk. Patterson and his wife were each fined and sentenced to serve a long term in jail. The girl was released after court to her father, who refused to push the abduction case against the Pattersons. Money is, however, being subscribed by persons who witnessed the condition of the little girl, to prosecute Charles Patterson for a grave offense.

ATTACHMENTS.

Much surprise was occasioned in Fredericksburg yesterday when it became known that J. D. Case, of Indiana, had instituted suit for $9,000 in the Caroline county court against A. B. Lewis, the wealthy New York stock broker, whose wife owns the handsome Lewis-Anna farm on the Rappahannock river below Fredericksburg.

Mr. Lewis is the owner of a valuable herd of Jersey cattle, and became prominent a few months ago by paying $12,000 for a Jersey bull. Mr. Lewis owes a considerable sum to different dealers in Fredericksburg. These at once took steps to protect themselves through legal action, as it is feared Mr. Lewis has lost heavily in the stock market slump.

The property levied on yesterday was 32 horses and mules, 180 head of cattle, farming implements, wagons, harness and steam engines. Mr. Lewis arrived in Fredericksburg yesterday from New York and stated that he was much surprised that his property had been levied upon and that in a few days he would pay every claim against him.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I recently reduced my cash fare to 15c from the Union station to any part of the city, hoping it would meet with the approval of the traveling public and that I would have their patronage. But to the contrary I find the majority prefer the 25c fare to the 15c fare, therefore I have decided to put the price back to 25c on and after this date—October 22nd. Very respectfully,

Trust Company Suspends

New York, Oct. 22.—Shortly after the opening this morning a run was started on the Harlem branch of the Knickerboker Trust Company at Lenox avenue and 125th street. The reserves were called out to keep the depositors in order and the bank officials brought out huge stacks of currency and dealt it out as rapidly as possible. They say they have plenty of money to meet all calls.

Both at the general offices and the Harlem branch of the company officials refused to make any statement. Over the telephone, the official in charge of the Harlem branch said: "I can't say a word. I'm too busy to talk. I'm not allowed to say anything, anyway."

Seventy-five persons were in line seeking to withdraw funds when the main office of the Knickerbocker Trust Company opened at 66 Broadway today. Harry B. Hollins, one of the directors is helping the officers of the company to handle the rush. He said there was plenty of money on hand and that plenty more could be procured instantly if it should be needed, which he considered improbable.

Another disastrous crisis in Wall street was averted today when, after an all-night session, attended by J. P. Morgan and many other leaders of finance, it was announced that the trust companies of New York would support the Knickerbocker Trust Company and see it through any situation that might follow the sudden resignation of its president, Charles T. Barney.

New York, Oct. 22.—The Knickerbocker Trust Company temporarily suspended payment at its down town office, 66 Broadway, this afternoon, after paying out $8,000,000.

Following the announcement of suspension by the Knickerbocker call money ran up to sixty per cent.

Immediately following the closing of the doors by the Knickerbocker came a report, which spread like wildfire through the financial district, that the Trust Company of North America was also in difficulty. Chairman John E. Borne, of the directorate, was highly indignant at the rumor and declared it to be a libellously malicious statement. The trust company, he asserted, has had no relations whatsoever with Charles W. Morse or any of the persons who have been named as being responsible for the present upheaval in banking circles.

An official statement regarding the condition of the Knickerbocker will be issued soon, according to the officers. They are now in consultation with leading financial interests with a view to resuming payments. All trust companies in the city have been asked to come to the aid of the Knickerbocker in order that payments may be resumed throughout the day.

Examiner M. W. Hutchins of the State Banking Department said that he made a hasty examination of the accounts of the Knickerbocker Trust Company this morning and he emphatically declares the books show the institution to be absolutely solvent.

All depositors in the waiting line were told to come back at 9 o'clock tomorrow.

The Bank Troubles.

New York, Oct. 22.—The house cleaning now going on in New York banks is regarded in the financial district as being considerably over due. At the time of the insurance exposures it was predicted the banks would be next, but they escaped to make way for the Standard Oil and traction revelations.

The bank exposures have proceeded with a sensational rapidity. It took months to get McCall and McCurdy out of the insurance companies, but in four days the presidents of four national banks and the president of one trust company have been summarily bounced, with a long list of directors.

The trouble originated from the same Wall street system of legal looting that was effective in the case of the insurance companies.

In the insurance exposures the operators involved included E. H. Harriman, Senator C. M. DePew, George W. Perkins of J. P. Morgan & Co., and a host of lesser fry, including heads of the corporations themselves.

In the traction muddle are involved Thomas F. Ryan, Anthony N. Brady, August Belmont, P. A. B. Widener, Thos. Dolan, H. H. Vreeland and what has been known for years as the inside clique of tractions in the east.

Now in the banking revelations the big men so far uncovered are E. Augustus Heinze, Charles W. Morse, E. R. Thomas and 24 other less well-known financiers.

It is the custom of Wall street banks to loan money on marketable securities up to 80 per cent. of their value. If the market value of the securities fall the bank demands more security. But stocks rarely fall more than five points at a time, so the banks are able to keep their loans safe.

In one day, however, the Heinze and Morse securities fell from a market value of fifty cents on the dollar or more to a point where it was practically impossible to sell them at any price. There was no time for the banks involved to get securities and they were left stranded high on the beach.

This gave the Clearing House, now known in Wall street as the cleaning house, its opportunity. It had these operators absolutely at its mercy and refused to put up a cent until they got out of the banking business entirely.

In general the entire trouble is regarded as an acute case of undigested securities, but this time it is the "inside" banks that have the indigestion and not the other banks or the public in general.

Hebrew Men and Women Mutilated.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Prominent Hebrews here have received news of a fresh outbreak of violence against the Jews at Odessa. Thirty men and women have been mutilated by the rioters in an attempt, it is said, to make them give up treasures they were supposed to have hidden. One Jewish boy's eyes were gouged out before his mother to force her to bring concealed wealth to light.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. Place for Mitchell.

Indianapolis, Oct. 22.—There is reason to believe that John Mitchell, president of the miners, is to be pushed for a high political office not only by his labor organization of friends, but by some powerful financial interests. It is known that President Roosevelt will make a high place for Mitchell, if the latter will accept it, and this the labor leader will probably do, if his health is restored.

Passenger Steamer on the Rocks.

London, Oct. 22.—With 500 passengers aboard, the Russian Steamboat Lituania is ashore off Skillinge, according to a dispatch to Lloyds from Malmo, Sweden. The vessel ran on the rocks in a fog. The stranded ship is difficult to reach, its position is dangerous and the passengers and crew are in grave peril. The Lituania was bound from Libau to Copenhagen and America.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 22.—Houres whose names are strongly suggestive of Vanderbilt-Morgan business bought on an exceedingly large scale. Standard Oil brokers were also notable buyers. It was general comment on the floor that support was necessary in view of the developments in regard to the Knickerbocker Trust Company over night. After the first effect of the support passed away the market became heavy, but declines when made were more orderly and there was no evidence of demoralization in any part of the exchange. The price movements were almost uniform without any special influence prevailing in any quarter, the market being wholly dominated by general conditions. At the end of the first hour the entire market ruled 1 to 2 points below yesterday's closing.

At 1:30 p. m. the market was still in a highly chaotic state, with the quotations for call funds fluctuating from 4 to 45 per cent. and but little available at that figure

Following the announcement of the closing of the Knickerbocker's doors exciting trading followed on the stock exchange, the air taking on a distinctly panicky aspect. Valuations dropped from the noon days figures from 3 to 8 points compared with yesterday's closing figures, and at the same rate for call money moved up to as high as 55 per cent. later declining to 22 per cent.

Standard Oil was under pressure throughout the morning and the stock of the giant monopoly reached the lowest figure in years, selling down to 390. During the morning some 400 shares were dealt.

Albert A. Wilson, former United States marshal for the District of Columbia, died in Washington yesterday.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

As stated in the Gazette of that day the cases pending against Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, one for the murder of Jackson Boney, one for criminal assault on Annie Green, and one for assault with intent to kill upon Forrest Gooding, were all nolle prossed and dismissed from the docket yesterday.

Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey stated to the court that, as Gov. Swanson had seen fit to commute the sentence of death in the Risley case to life imprisonment, and as the Commonwealth had only one witness in the other cases pending, and did not know whether she would come to court or not, he had decided to ask for a nolle prosequi.

Thereupon James E. Clements, who has defended Wright, stated to the court thrt he had come prepared to try these cases, and that in his judgment there was not a scintilla of evidence to convict the prisoner; that he was innocent of the pending charges, as he was of the charge upon which he stands convicted; that the Risley case heretofore tried was twice before the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, and twice did two of the ablest judges of that tribunal, in strong and carefully considered opinions, declare that the evidence disclosed by the record was not sufficient to justify Wright's conviction, and these opinions alone were sufficient to influence the governor in granting a commutation, and, in the eyes of all impartial citizens, his conduct in doing so was worthy of commendation rather than censure.

The grand jury, with William M. Backus as foreman, found indictments charging Ella Jackson and Bessie Robinson with housebreaking and larceny; Harry Terry, assault with intent to kill, and Robert Hollman, placing an obstruction on a railway track. In the case of William Washington, charged with larceny, the jury returned not a true bill.

The grand jury also found indictments against Frank Hitchcock for attempted rape and against Reece Jordan for carbreaking and larceny. The grand jury was then adjourned for the term.

Today—Com. vs. Peter Smith, colored, indicted for assault with intent to kill; jury and verdict of guilty of assault and prisoner sentenced to serve 90 days in jail.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.

St. Mary's Church was crowded on Sunday when the Mass of the Maternity of the Blessed Virgin and also for the occurrence of the 18th anniversary of the consecration of the Right Reverend Augustine Van De Vyver, as Bishop of the Diocese of Richmond, was celebrated. Rev. August Hilbleib was the celebrant and about fifty boys in surplices with red capes preceded him when he entered the sanctuary. Many of these assisted him in various ways during the mass, and the beauty of the altars on which they lighted many candles was striking, some holding them about the altar during and after the consecration by the priest. The music was furnished by a choir, who sang the Gloria, Credo and other portions of the mass in the only language now allowed, no females being permitted to sing during mass. The young men sang beautifully, though solemnly. Towards the end of the mass the celebrant preached a beautiful sermon, and after the mass, while the candles on the altar were being put out, the choir sang "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name" in English.

In the evening the Vespers were sung in the old tones, so well-known in the past, and Rev. Leonard F. Kelly, after an address to the children by Rev. Father Gallagher, explaining the usefulness of the organization they were to join, the Society of Angels, fifty little girls in white, the badge was given to each of them and they went back to their pews—a most beautiful sight. The service was concluded by the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Everything both in the morning and evening celebrations showed how carefully the children had been trained.

PROPERTY SALES.

Capt. R. F. Knox on the premises sold at auction today for Mr. Gardner L. Boothe, trustee, all that lot of ground with the improvements thereon situated at the intersection of the south side of Gibbon street with the east side of Alfred street known as No. 602 south Alfred street, including the boiler, machinery and all apparatus pertaining to the bottling works of James McCuen, which were on the property described above, to Mr. M. B. Harlow for the First National Bank for $5,000.

Mr. George B. Kennedy and others have sold to the Solar Chemical Company the property situated at the southeast corner of Prince and Fairfax streets 61 feet on Prince by 114 on Fairfax for $15,000. The Solar Company was chartered some time ago for the purpose of manufacturing drugs, &c. It is understood, however, that operation will not be commenced in that line in the near future. The manufactories already in the building will continue there.

A HUGE PERSIMMON.

Captain Trailley, of Lower Machodoc, master of an oyster vessel, stopped here yesterday while on his way down the river from Washington and interested a number of men who were standing upon one of the city wharves by exhibiting a persimmon as large as a goose-egg. In the olden times small river craft plying between Occoquan and Alexandria were said to carry almost exclusively hoop-poles and persimmons. Should residents of that section of Prince William cultivate the variety referred to above the persimmon industry might again become a staple product.

ACCIDENT TO A FIREMAN.

Ashby L. Malone, of Harrisonburg, fireman on north bound passenger train No. 28 of the Manassas division of the Southern Railway, fell from the tender of his locomotive at Manassas Sunday night and was painfully injured. He was engaged in filling the tank with water at the time of the accident.

MR. CARLIN IN LOUISA.

Mr. C. C. Carlin, Congressman-elect from this district, was at Louisa Courthouse recently and spoke twice to large crowds of miners and farmers. A correspondent in writing from Louisa says his presence has been helpful to his candidacy there, and it is suggested that the vote he will receive in that county will be a personal compliment, as both democrats and republicans are beginning to recognize the fact that in Mr. Carlin they have a man who is going to develop into a congressional representative second to none in the State. A correspondent says: "He is a quick and ready debater, a fluent speaker, and has a pleasing, persuasive manner which, addedto his charming personality and vigorous youth, furnishes a replete equipment for a brilliant future, which the writer confidently predicts for him. It might be added that he is the choice of the Louisa democrats over any other man, excepting, of course, a Louisa man. However, in the latter contingency, he will poll a heavy vote in the party primary. His speech was a strong defense of democratic principles, and though he pounded the position of the republican party, he never once referred to the fact that the republicans have nominated a man in opposition to him. He dismissed him without a word, and apparently, without a thought."

Mr. Carlin spoke at Culpeper yesterday to an enthusiastic audience, and was greatly applauded by his hearers when he vigorously denounced Bishop Potter, of New York, for the entertainment at luncheon by himself and Mrs. Potter of the negro Bishop of Palmas during the recent convention of the Episcopal Church at Richmond. Mr. Carlin was severe in his criticism of Bishop Potter for having chosen Richmond and the home of a Virginian (which Bishop Potter was renting for the occasion) as the "scene in which to parade his pro-negro sentiments by way of illustrating his willingness to meet members of the African race upon complete terms of social equality." From the sixth chapter of Proverbs, the nineteenth verse, the speaker quoted: "An abomination unto the Lord is he that soweth discord among his brethren." Mr. Carlin asked in what more effective manner could Bishop Potter have elected to sow discord among the Episcopal brethren assembled at Richmond than to sit down and break bread at his private table with one of the African race. He deprecated the act as one calculated to enliven again the old-time race bitterness in the South, and said that Bishop Potter, by so doing, had done little to serve his Master. He stated that the occurrence was nothing short of a serious reflection upon the great Christian body of which he was a part. He expressed a feeling of genuine regret that there were such men, occupying high and eminent positions, who were willing to lend themselves to the promotion of race prejudice among their brethren. Mr. Carlin's speech was enthusiastically received.

COLLISION ON BRIDGE.

Two cars of the Great Falls and Old Dominion Railway crushed into each other at 6:20 this morning midway on the Aqueduct bridge, injuring the motormen of both cars severely and shaking up the passengers. A thick fog hung over the river at the time. Samuel Redman was the motorman of the bridge car, and Herbert Groves, motorman of the through car from Great Falls. Redman, who lives in Prospect Hill, Va., is lying at the Georgetown University Hospital with both ankles crushed, so that amputation of the feet will be necessary. Groves' ankle was broken. He lives in Cherrydale, Va. Millard F Patterson, of Warren, Va., the conductor of the bridge car, was thrown to the floor of his car and severely shaken up. Conductor Wiley, of the through car, escaped. The only passenger injured was James Brashers, an engineer connected with the road, who was riding on the bridge car to Great Falls. He received a slight cut in the forehead.

FINED FIVE DOLLARS.

A fight occurred between two young men in a saloon in the southeastern section of the city on Saturday night, October 12. The matter was reported to the police, and Officer Knight later secured the names of the combatants. They were arrested yesterday and this morning brought into the Police Court and fined $5 each. The Gazette of the 14th instant stated that the fight occured on the preceding night—Sunday. This, however, was erroneous, as the proprietor of the saloon is a strict observer of the Sunday law.

A DAUGHTER'S SACRIFICE.

In an effort to save her father from the consequences of killing her lover, Miss Ida Summerlin, a pretty seventeen-year-old girl, of Douglas, Ga., went on the witness stand and sacrificed herself, but her sacrifice was in vain, for the jury found the father guilty of murder.

Ivy Summerlin, the father of the girl, is a prominent citizen of Coffee county, and his victim, Leo Mancil, was a member of a wealthy family.

Some months ago Summerlin found his daughter and Mancil together, and killed the young man in his daughter's presence. When the girl had realized that her lover had been slain she turned to her father and said: "You have killed Leon, now kill me."

Summerlin claimed at the time that Mancil had wronged the girl, but this the girl denied. She said that she and Mancil were engaged and were discussing their marriage when her father fired.

At the trial yesterday, however, Miss Summerlin appeared as witness for her father and deliberately sacrificed herself, alleging that Mancil had wronged her and then refused to marry her.

The girl sobbed bitterly as she told her story and many in the courtroom wept. The jury, however, was unaffected, for a verdict of guilty was quickly returned.

PERMANENT INJUNCTION.

A temporary injunction against the inciting of a strike by the International Pressmen's Union for an eight-hour day was made permanent yesterday by United States Judge Thompson in Cincinnati, who held that such action by the union officers would be the breaking of a valid contract.

An injunction was sought by the United Typothetae of America and certain publishing concerns in New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Massachussetts, to prevent the defendants—officers and members of the Pressmen's Union—from inciting and carrying on a strike, which was in effect the breaking of a contract entered into last May, and running until January 1, 1912.

According to the contract the pressmen were to have a nine-hour day until January 1, 1908, when the eight-hour day was to go into effect, but the union had demanded the immediate acceptance of the eight-hour day.

The injunction as issued forbids the payment of strike benefits or any action by the officers of the union that would incite a strike in contravention of the contract.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much fear the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Scarcity of Cars.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Railroad officials here complained today of the lack of cars to handle the business from the northwest, chiefly on account of the heavy grain movement. They say the railroads are more worried about being able to handle their business than they are about any financial depression. All classes of freight are heavy and railroad officials have all they can do and more. There are signs of an easier monetary situation and a renewal of general prosperity is looked for soon.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Injured by Collision.

Akron, Ohio, Oct. 21.—As a result of a collision between two heavily load cars on the A. B. & C. Traction line north of here early today, nineteen persons are in Akron hospitals and a score are suffering less severe injuries. All are expected to recover. The cars met on the main track at Little York, running at full speed.
